

Gateways is opening the treasure house of Torah for all Jews, regardless of age, background, or affiliation.

For the thousands of men and women who have attended one of our dynamic seminars, educational programs, or collegiate and singles activities, Gateways has provided an awakening of their Jewish identity; a warm, caring send-off on their journey of Jewish exploration.

For the tens of thousands that will attend in the future, this Torah Scroll will serve as their point of entry; their first introduction to the inspiring world of Jewish learning and growth.
